○ Test 13

Read the following stories of films. Match them with the type of film the five students love to see. Write the correct letter of the film in the box.

Film A

12 Years a Slave

This is a true story of a free black man called Solomon from New York who is abducted and sold into slavery. In the twelfth year of his captivity, with a Canadian, Solomon manages to escape from the cruel slave owner.

Film B

Virunga

The film is named after the Virunga National Park in Congo. It not only captures the wildlife in the national park with particular focus on gorillas, but also the dedication of teams aiming to protect it.

Film C

The Bridge on the River Kwai

British war prisoners are forced to build a railway bridge across the river Kwai for their Japanese captors, not knowing that their own forces are planning to destroy it.

Film D

A Tale of Marie and Three Puppies

This story is about what Aya's dog Marie and her puppies have gone through after an earthquake that strikes Japan. Going through a lot of hardships, Aya manages to save her dog and puppies.

Film E

The Blue Elephant

This is a cartoon movie about a young elephant that lives in a forest. It thinks about its lost father whom it has never met. Leaving the forest in search of its father, it finds real friends and becomes a brave elephant that has a gentle heart.

○ Test 15

Read the following text and answer the questions given below.

Life of Sea Otters

- ① The relationship between a mother and her pup shows the most intimate association in a sea otter's life. The adult male provides no parental care, which is typical for most mammals. However a female sea otter spends a great deal of time and energy in caring for her offspring, which depend on her for nourishment and protection.
- ② A mother and her pup are never far apart during the entire time. A pup spends most of its time riding on its mother's belly. Even very large pups, six months or older, may still try to "climb on board". You can't help but feel sorry for a mother struggling to paddle with a pup nearly her own size riding on her stomach!
- ③ A mother's protective behaviour towards her offspring is obvious to anyone. Scientists have made interesting observations on mothers' and pups' behaviour. One mother was found fondling the dead body of a pup and attempting to groom the dead body. In Monterey Harbour, one female who had just lost her pup was seen mothering a plastic bottle - holding it under her chin and fondling it as if it were her pup. One brave mother actually climbed into a boat to rescue her large pup.
- ④ While being attentive to their own young, females rarely care for another mother's pup, probably in part because there's little chance that a mother who has lost her own pup will encounter an orphan.
- ⑤ A pup gets most of its nourishments by nursing from its mother for the first two months of its life. Although the mother continues to suckle her pup throughout the dependency period, the pup gradually adds more solid food to its diet.
- ⑥ A female's two nipples are often visible on her lower abdomen when she is producing milk. Like other marine mammals, sea otters produce milk that's extremely rich in protein and fat and low in lactose or milk sugar.

- (1) State whether the following statements are True or False by putting a tick (✓) in the relevant column.

	True	False
(1) Only female sea otters provide parental care.
(2) Pups leave their parents when they are six months old.
(3) A female otter is very unlikely to care for another mother's pup.
(4) Sea otters' milk does not contain lactose.

(½ × 4 = 02 marks)
